6. Reading Test A

The beautiful princess Mai Chi lived in her father's palace. She never went outside its high walls. Her father, the King, wanted to choose her husband. He didn't want her to meet a handsome young man and fall in love. So she stayed locked in the palace and the people of the city were sad because they never saw her.

One day a famous general, Xiao Lu, came to the city. The King wanted to thank him for winning so many battles. But the King didn't want Mai Chi to meet the soldier, so he locked her in her room.

When the King saw that Xiao Lu was younger and more handsome than any other general in his army, he thought, 'I don't want her to fall in love with a soldier. I want her to marry a prince.'

But Xiao Lu knew that the King had a beautiful daughter. So that night, he searched the castle until he found her room. Very quietly, he went in and woke her up. She immediately fell in love with him, and they escaped together. They got married and had children. The King was angry at first, but in the end he was happy because his daughter and her family came to live with him. The old King loved his grandchildren.
